Introduction to our updated school uniform

Dear Newhaven Families,

At the end of last year we were excited to launch Newhaven College's new and updated uniform.

The decision to refresh our school uniform is an important one. Whilst many items have remained the same, or very similar, the evolution is reflected in a range of ways including updated designs, colour combinations and materials, as well as additional items.

This update to our school uniform has taken place after months of planning and included consultation with students and parents. The uniform is designed to represent who we are as a school, instil a sense of pride and belonging, and ensure comfort and functionality for our students. Importantly it also caters for the unique outdoor and environmental conditions of our school that are such an important part of a Newhaven school experience.

The new uniform design builds on the traditions of the school, whilst reflecting the modern and dynamic nature of education today. We have used the highest quality fabrics whilst being environmentally conscious through sustainable materials, as well as doing our best to keep the items as affordable and durable as possible. The uniform also has a flexibility and comfort that caters for our diverse and evolving student body.

As a college we understand the school uniform is an important part of each families planning. Please remember the new uniform will be phased in gradually and students can continue to wear their existing school uniform until a replacement is necessary.

We truly believe that our new uniform will not only enhance the appearance of our students but also foster a stronger sense of community, belonging and tradition.

In Quietness and Confidence Shall Be Your Strength

THE JOURNEY TO OUR UPDATED UNIFORM

1980

The 1990s saw the introduction of blazer and tie as the formal uniform.

2005, The College crest was opened up, making it bolder and easier to read.

2017

2020, The Junior School's uniforms were designed to compliment older students

1980

The Foundations students of 1980 wore windcheaters with the original College crest

1987, Many elements of the uniform endure today, with skirts, summer dresses and pants not changing over the years.

2000

2015, The original crest has always had its place, but changed as time went on.

2021, Newhaven College manages to create the perfect balance between the formal school uniform while embracing our natural environment

THE JOURNEY TO OUR NEW UNIFORM

The story of Newhaven College's uniform is a journey through time, reflecting the school's evolution and enduring commitment to excellence. It all began in the 1980s when the school's colours were chosen to reflect our location on Phillip Island - navy blue, sky blue and maroon. The colours represented the sea, sky and the red coloured rocks off the coast of the township of Newhaven. The Foundation Students of 1980, wore skirts, pants, shorts and summer dresses not that dissimilar to today, with a more casual college jumper, a pale blue windcheater with the original College crest.

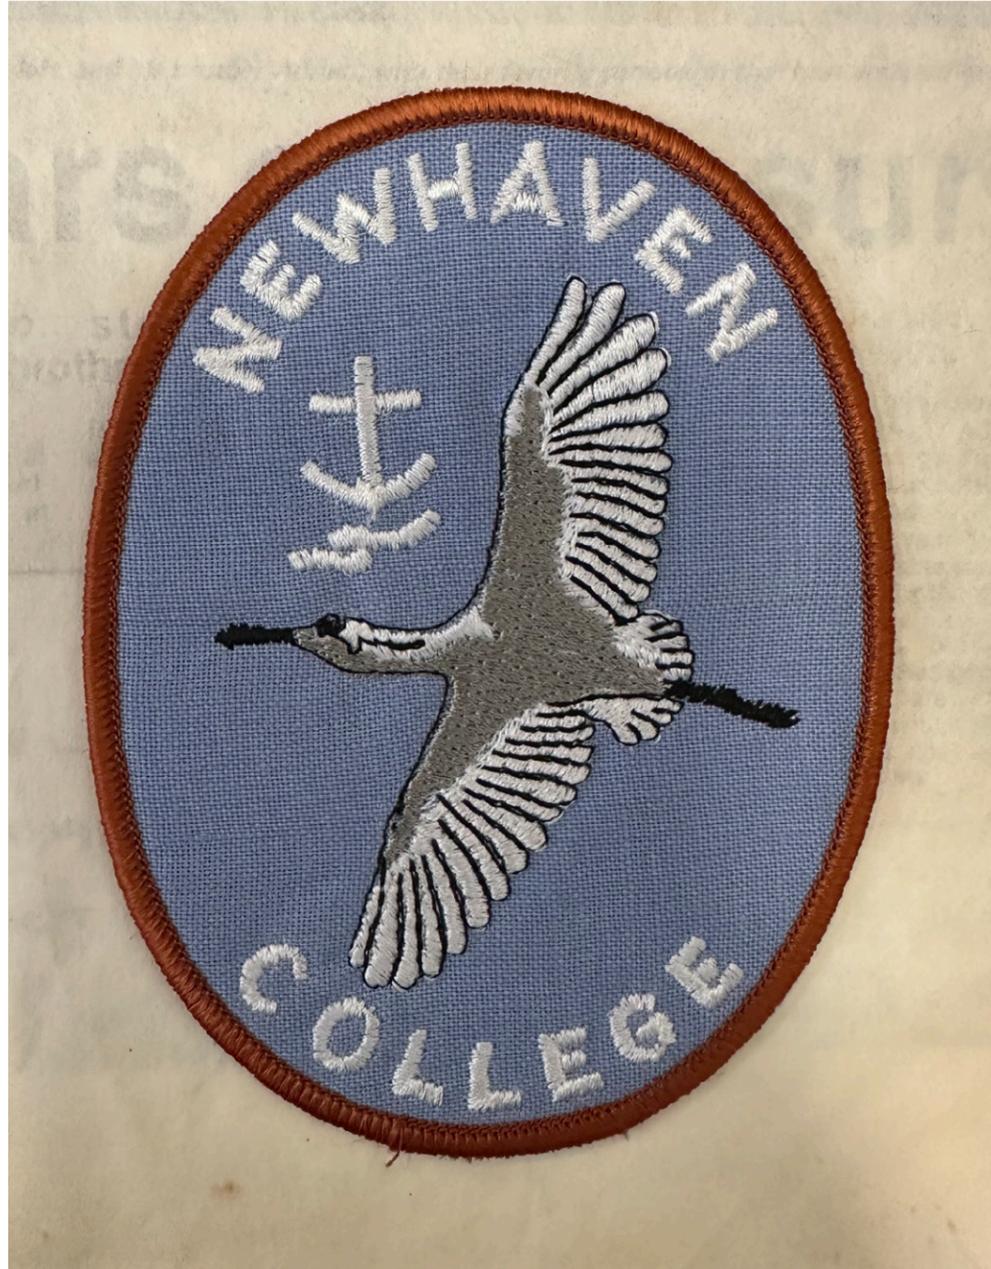

The original Newhaven College crest and motto are still part of the school's identity. The original Royal Spoonbill, drawn by renowned ornithologist Graham Pizzey, the ecumenical symbol of a cross in a boat and the scroll inscribed with the school motto 'In Quietness and Confidence Shall Be Your Strength' (Isaiah 30:15), still being an important connection to Newhaven College's origins. The current branding is simpler, lighter and more contemporary while still embracing the past.

As the years unfolded, the uniform saw changes and adaptations. The 1990s marked a significant transformation with the introduction of blazers, ties and various accessories that reflected the school's spirit. Newhaven College is now introducing a new chapter in its uniform history.

Elements of the current uniform will be phased out in favour of a fresh design, symbolising the school's commitment to high-quality education in a nurturing environment.

Our new uniform isn't just a change in branding and clothing - it's an embodiment of the school's enduring pride and its students' dedication to the Newhaven College community. As we move forward, let's celebrate the rich history that has brought us to this moment and look ahead to the exciting future that awaits.

Our crest has evolved from Newhaven College's beginnings, featuring a modern update while staying true to its original design and honouring the school's heritage.
